LUDA Foods takes home another DUX Award Press Release

For immediate release

Pointe-Claire, QC, January 31, 2019 – LUDA Foods, manufacturer of soups, sauces and seasonings located in Pointe-Claire, received an award for its Plant-Based Nutritional Supplement at the DUX Gala on January 30, 2019.

About 500 professionals from different fields of the food community attended the event that took place at Marché Bonsecours in Montreal. Hosted by Bruny Surin and Isabelle Racicot, the gala highlighted businesses, organizations and institutions that stood out with their healthy eating initiatives in three categories: Products, Communications and Projects. The judges' panel was made up of professionals and experts in food and health.

LUDA Foods won the award in the "Facilitating Products – SMB" category with its Plant-Based Nutritional Supplement. This instant dissolve nutritional powder can be added to soups, purées, sauces and/or prepared meals to boost the protein, fiber, vitamin B12 and iron intake of meals and help prevent malnutrition in institutionalized individuals - with no chemical aftertaste.

One serving (13 g) contains 6 g of protein, 4 g of fiber, 0.94 mg iron and 4.2 mcg vitamin B12.

About LUDA Foods

LUDA Foods has been crafting soups, sauces and seasonings for the food service and industrial markets since 1951. A third-generation, family-owned company in which North American chefs, buyers and their organizations have had a long-standing trust due to the high-quality LUDA brand line of dry mixes and refrigerated concentrates as well as the many custom private label products LUDA Foods has developed. All of them are made-to-order, right here in Canada.

LUDA Foods' specialties include gluten free, vegetarian, sodium reduced, Halal, Kosher, and clean label. Their manufacturing facility is HACCP and GFSI certified under the SQF referential, and all products comply with the GS1 FS3 certification. What is more, they are a CFIA meat and fish registered establishment with daily inspections.
